

Intergenerational Course Training the Trainer

Are you involved and enthusiastic about Intergenerational work?

Do you deliver training as part of your role?

Would you be interested in promoting Intergenerational Practice by becoming an IP Trainer?

If so, join us for a free one-day course in Intergenerational Practice (lunch included).

Date: Tuesday 25th June 2013

Time: 10.00 am - 4.00 pm

Venue: Conference Room, Voluntary Action Lochaber, An Drochaid, Claggan Road, Fort William, PH33 6PH.

Book at: www.generationsworkingtogether.org

Places will be confirmed.

Who should attend?

This course will be of interest to those who are keen to embed intergenerational approaches within their programmes of work.

This may be within the following settings:

- Children and Young people's projects
- Youth service staff and volunteers
- Those working with older people's groups and projects
- Local authority staff involved in Local Neighbourhoods, Social Cohesion, Community Safety, Policy and Scrutiny work
- Voluntary and community organisations
- Homelessness and Employment projects
- Those involved in Family Learning
- Voluntary and community groups and projects

Learning Outcomes

During the course participants will:

- Develop an awareness of resources and approaches which can support effective intergenerational training
- Explore and refine their own understanding of IP
- Have practical experience of the delivery of IP training
- Develop confidence and awareness to deliver IP training to front-line staff

For more info please contact us t: 0141 559 5024

e: office@generationsworkingtogether.org

www.generationsworkingtogether.org

Generations Working Together is managed by Scottish Mentoring Network and supported by the UK Centre for Intergenerational Practice.

Generations
Working Together

The Scottish Centre for Intergenerational Practice