Generations
Working Together

Date: Tuesday 11th June 2013

Time: 15.00-17.00

Venue: Voluntary Action Lochaber, An Drochaid, Claggan Road, Fort William, PH33 6PH

Tea/coffee will be served on arrival

Are you working across the generations?

Would you like to meet people who are?

Would you like to know more about Intergenerational Practice?

If so then this meeting is for you!

Generations Working Together (GWT) is designed to create networking opportunities for organisations and groups who would like to be kept up to date with what's happening in the local area, along with opportunities to link with other key partners in delivering current and future intergenerational activities. In addition you will hear about what GWT is planning to do nationally and how you can have an input in to our policies and strategies.

Who should attend?

Representatives of organisations such as:

Voluntary & community groups, councillors, educational institutions (such as schools, colleges, nurseries etc), local authority departments, health boards, police, fire and rescue, sheltered housing, care homes, youth groups, sports groups, local faith communities, older people's groups, health & disability groups and other interested parties are invited to attend.

'Intergenerational practice aims to bring people together in purposeful, mutually beneficial activities promoting greater understanding and respect between the generations, and contributing to building more cohesive communities.'
