

Intergenerational Training Training the Trainer Course

Generations
Working Together

Date: Tuesday 29 October 2013

Time: 10.00- 16.00

Venue: Kingsway East Fire Station, Milton of Craigie Road, Dundee, DD4 7RX

Are you involved and enthusiastic about intergenerational (IG) work?

Would you like to hear more about IG work across Scotland?

Are you interested in promoting intergenerational practice by becoming a Trainer?

If so, join us for a free one-day course in Intergenerational Practice (IP) (Lunch included).

Learning Outcomes During the course participants will:

- Explore and refine their own understanding of intergenerational practice
- Develop confidence and awareness to deliver IP training to front-line staff
- Develop an awareness of resources and approaches which can support effective IG training
- Have practical experience of the delivery of IP training

Who should attend?

This course will be of interest to those who are keen to embed intergenerational approaches within their programmes of work. Who can attend:

- Representatives from children/young people's and older people's groups & services
- Local authority staff involved in local neighbourhoods, social cohesion, community safety etc.
- Representatives from educational establishments
- Voluntary and community organisations and groups
- Homelessness and employment projects
- Police, Fire & Rescue, NHS & community health groups
- Local faith groups and other interested parties

For further information please contact Yvonne on Yvonne@generationsworkingtogether.org
To book a place please register online HERE or call 0141 559 5024

www.generationsworkingtogether.org

Generations Working Together is managed by Scottish Mentoring Network and supported by the UK Centre for Intergenerational Practice (Beth Johnson Foundation)