

Fathers Network Scotland is looking for new Board Directors

Criteria:

About you:

Ideally, new Board Directors will have expertise in one of the following areas:

Communication: marketing / PR / advertising

Finance: accounting and/or bookkeeping

Law: especially family law, employment law

HR: knowledge of legislation, contracts, etc.

Business management: especially social enterprise.

However we welcome all enquiries from both women and men.

Commitment:

You will be asked to serve on the Board for a minimum of two years. Meetings take place approximately every 8 weeks. Dates for the following calendar year are circulated prior to, and agreed at, the last meeting of the year.

To attend an annual Trustee Conference.

To represent FNS at other internal and external events, depending on your availability.

To participate in appropriate sub-committee groups – depending on your area of expertise and availability.

To attend any other exceptional meetings by agreement of the Board.

Attendance at our annual AGM.

The total commitment is an average of 6 hours per month.

In return we offer a highly rewarding role...

The opportunity to enhance your existing skills and knowledge relating to the development of an innovative and dynamic organisation.

The chance to play a key role in the running and development of FNS; enabling the organisation to continue its work creating positive social change in Scotland for the benefit of our children, families and communities.
