

CITADEL ARTS GROUP INTER-GENERATIONAL PROJECTS

Pictures of Citadel's recent projects:

In 2012 we tried out scenes from Laure Paterson's play about the old Leith Hospital in Jameson Place Sheltered Housing, Leith. After the play, tenants and pupils from St Mary's Primary socialised.

The pupils gave playwright, Laure Paterson (second left) and actor Nicky McCabe their feedback and suggestions for developing the script of the play. Four of the class went on to take part in the show at Leith Festival 2012.

In 2013, Jim Brown (right), a member of our older playwrights' group, discusses his play, 'Junk Food Vampire', with young people from another class from St Mary's.

Retired engineer, Alan Mountford, meets the young audience who enjoyed his pantomime, 'McScrooge', Christmas 2013.
