

Training Course Programme

10.00 Introductions and Housekeeping

The Training Pack

Overview, resources and learning outcomes

What is intergenerational practice?

A practical small-group activity and discussion which will help to clarify terms and definitions in relation to intergenerational practice. What is a generation?

11:00 Working break

Planning an intergenerational project linking to local priorities and national policy

Dragons' Den meets the Secret Millionaire

An extended group activity with opportunities for networking and planning, including information about Scottish policy areas and outcomes.

Resources: website & case studies etc.

12.15 - 13.00 Lunch

13.00 How to bring people from different generations together effectively

What are the challenges and barriers? Addressing stereotyping, a practical activity. A staged process - some theory and discussion. Participation and involvement – good practice.

14.00

Social Impact

What is evaluation and why is evaluation important?

Inputs, Outputs, outcomes & social impact - activity

14.30 Break

14.45 Measuring intergenerational practice & reporting

What should an impact evaluation report or impact statement look like?

15.30 What next?

GWT local networks, social media, events & resources

15.45 Rounding up

Today's evaluation, certificates & goodbyes

16.00 Close