

Generations Working Together.org

Volunteer with us

Generations Working Together (GWT) is recruiting coordinators to support local intergenerational networks across Scotland, meeting 2-4 times each year. These are designed to create opportunities for groups who would like to be kept up to date with what's happening locally and nationally, and link with others in delivering meaningful activities.

GWT is a national charity and membership organisation which works to advance intergenerational practice in Scotland.

Volunteer tasks will include:

Plan, support and develop 2-4 local network meetings each year

Assist GWT to promote and market training opportunities and events

Assist GWT staff in collating intergenerational case studies

Attend volunteer coordinators' meetings (2-3 per year)

Promote and raise awareness of the benefits of intergenerational work

Expand GWT membership

Generations
Working Together.org

Reasons to volunteer with us

Develop personally and professionally by learning new skills

Getting involved strengthens the community and the people within

Volunteering your time gives you a sense of pride and satisfaction

An opportunity to meet new people and build relationships

An opportunity to give back and to support your community

To make a difference in people's lives

Opportunities can be found on the GWT website:
Networks menu > volunteering.

www.generationsworkingtogether.org

Volunteer now

0141 559 5024

Email: office@generationsworkingtogether.org