Join Generations Working Together and take your commitment to diversity, inclusivity and intergenerational harmony to the next level. Our membership provides access to a community of like-minded organisations, experts in the field and the latest research and best practice. Show your stakeholders and employees that you're dedicated to creating an environment that bridges the gap between generations and empowers all individuals to thrive. Invest in a GWT membership and unlock the full potential of a truly intergenerational workplace.

Sarah
HR Manager
England

Sarah, 36, is HR Manager at a medium-sized, private sector business. She is always looking for ways to improve employee satisfaction and overall company culture, and so has become interested in intergenerational practices. She knows that having a diverse workforce, made up of individuals from different generations, can bring a wealth of knowledge and experience to the workplace.

Sarah believes intergenerational workplaces can help bridge the gap between employees of different generations and create a more harmonious and productive work environment. That's why she is considering a membership with Generations Working Together.

With access to online training, events, and publications, as well as opportunities to connect with others who share her passion for intergenerational practice, Sarah knows a Generations Working Together membership will provide her with the resources she needs to successfully implement intergenerational practices in her workplace.

Fred
CEO of International organisation
England

Fred, 42, is CEO of an international organisation that places students around the world in accommodation, aiming to enhance students' overall experiences throughout and beyond university and college life. The organisation has around 180 employees across different countries.

They have a strong mission statement for their staff and their clients, empowering them on their educational journey, supporting their holistic needs and providing them a safe space to do this – 'We're a brand that lives and breathes our purpose'. The living experiences they seek to offer are 'environmentally and socially conscious, emotionally supportive and safe'.

Fred is keen for the organisation to explore intergenerational opportunities and likes the idea of putting his staff through GWT's training. He wants to raise awareness about ageism, and to improve communication and collaboration between generations by creating inclusive places that everyone feels comfortable, safe and able to thrive.
