

Generations
Working
Together

Generations Working Together

Excellence Awards

Definition

Intergenerational practice aims to bring people together in purposeful, mutually beneficial activities which promote greater understanding and respect between generations and contributes to building more cohesive communities.

Intergenerational practice is inclusive, building on the positive resources that the younger and older have to offer each other and those around them.

Beth Johnson Foundation

Encouraging Reciprocal Learning Award

Generations
Working
Together

What's the difference?

Multi-generational
v
Intergenerational

Implementing Intergenerational Practice: Kaplan Levels

Reflect upon where your project would fit
within the Kaplan
Levels of Engagement

1. Reciprocal intergenerational learning
2. Generational diversity
3. Age discrimination & stereotypes
4. Life-course perspective
5. Relationships and bonding
6. Cross-disciplinary knowledge base
7. Good programme management
8. Evaluation
9. Practitioners

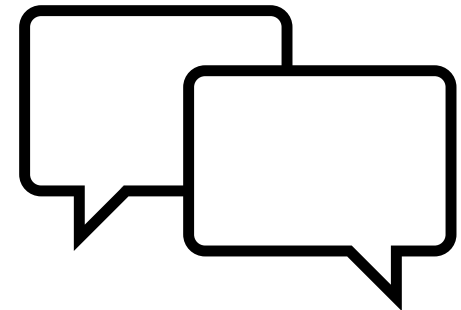

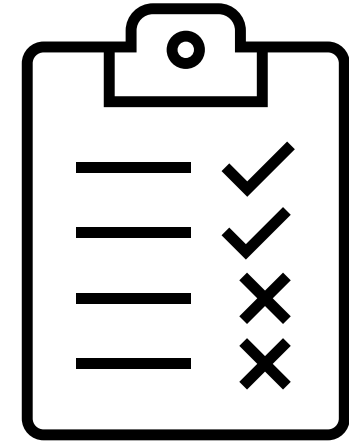

Generations
Working
Together

Excellence Award Categories

- 1. Confronts age discrimination and stereotypes
- 2. Values generational diversity & inclusion
- 3. Encourages reciprocal learning
- 4. Relies on cross-disciplinary knowledge base
- 5. Evaluates impact
- 6. International Award

What do we mean
by impact?

A word cloud centered around the word "intergenerational". The word "intergenerational" is the largest and most prominent, written in a dark green font. Surrounding it are numerous other words in various sizes and colors (including purple, blue, green, and brown). The words are arranged in a roughly circular pattern around the central word. Some of the words include "understanding", "learning", "community", "bridges", "population", "loneliness", "reconnection", "lives", "lifelong", "integration", "meaning", "living", "collaboration", "empathy", "transition", "inclusive", "practice", "ageism", "sustainable", "4ages", "change", "thinking", "active", "generativity", "social", "journeys", "age", "digital", "changing", "united", "delight", "ageing", "wellbeing", "future", "creativity", "friendship", "evidence", "empowerment", "purpose", "retirement", "empowering", "ageing", "inclusivity", "connection", "disconnection", and "equity".

intergenerational

understanding, learning, community, bridges, population, loneliness, reconnection, lives, lifelong, integration, meaning, living, collaboration, empathy, transition, inclusive, practice, ageism, sustainable, 4ages, change, thinking, active, generativity, social, journeys, age, digital, changing, united, delight, ageing, wellbeing, future, creativity, friendship, evidence, empowerment, purpose, retirement, empowering, ageing, inclusivity, connection, disconnection, equity

To be eligible for any of these awards, nominees must:

- Deliver their work in Scotland (Awards 1 – 5)
- Be following the core principles of intergenerational work
- Involve people from different generations
- Captured the relational change between generations
- See to generate mutual benefits
- Award 6 is only open to current international members & ICIP/IDIL/ICIL students

Your project should:

- Have clear aims and goals and be well planned
- Have a clear rationale for adopting an IG approach
- Meet the needs of all participants
- Focus on generational relationships
- Evidence the impact of the project
- Have a sustainability strategy
- Be innovative; and lie on the Kaplan Levels continuum

Award application process

01

Nomination forms must be submitted by Friday 15th March 2024 by 12 noon to Moira

02

A project can only be entered for one award category

03

Must include name & contact details of independent referee

04

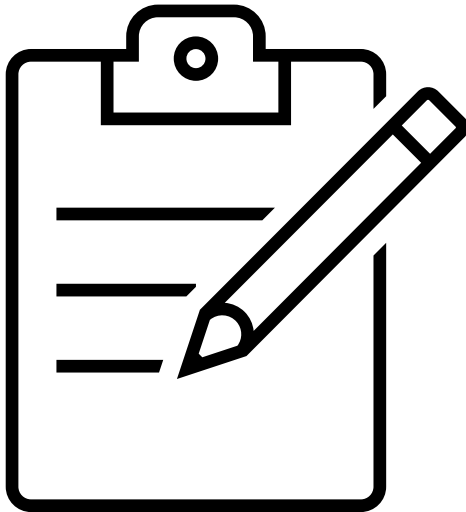

Application form must come with three high resolution photographs (consented for GWT use)

05

A confirmation email will be sent within five working days of the receipt of your form

Applications will be scored on the following:

---

- Planning
- Delivery
- Impact
- Innovation
- Improvement
- Levels of contact

Nominees must be willing to be interviewed should they make the shortlist, as special films will be recorded for the award presentations in the Parliamentary Reception on 11th June 2024, (5-8pm) at Holyrood, Edinburgh.

Winners will be asked to write a case study about their project.

- Any queries contact Moira@gwt.scot
- Application forms must be submitted by Friday 15th March, 2024 at 12 noon to Moira
- Award winners will be announced on Tuesday 11th June at a reception in the Scottish Parliament.

Any questions

